

Elaine Kamm
Hogan Coaching Network

- Executive Coaching
- Leadership Development
- Succession Planning
- Individual Assessment
- Leadership Communication
- Group Facilitation

Background

Elaine Kamm is an experienced and impactful organizational coach, group facilitator, and consultant in the areas of leadership development, relationship management, and formal and informal communications. Once responsible for the development and oversight of a corporate talent identification and executive development function for a Fortune 100 organization, Elaine combines her expertise in organizational talent management with her skills, experience and passion for working individually and in groups with executives in key positions and high potential employees ascending in their careers.

Elaine's specialty is the ability to work with clients in a way that builds on the knowledge and experience they already possess and then provide value-added, straightforward, and tangible tools that can be used immediately to address their most pressing workplace challenges.

Professional Experience

Founder and President, EKGroup
Instructor, Cornell University ILR School and Rutgers Center for Management Development
Vice President of Succession Planning and Executive Development, Beneficial Management Corporation
Director of Corporate Training and Development, Beneficial Management Corporation

Education

B.A. Psychology, Fairleigh Dickinson University, Magna Cum Laude
M.S. Industrial Psychology and Organizational Behavior, Stevens Institute of Technology

Client Experience

Barclay Bank, Bayer Consumer Care, Beneficial/Beneficial Bank, Citigroup, Corning Technologies, Deloitte and Touche, FECS, Health and Human Services, GE Capital, HSBC, Johnson and Johnson, Moody's, Merck, Metropolitan Jewish Health Systems, New York Department of Health, Novartis, Nyack Hospital, Pershing LLC, Skadden, Arps, Meagher and Flom, Summit Medical Group, Tiffany & Co., The New York Times, Westchester Medical Center