

Patrick Lagutaris
Hogan Coaching Network

Background

Patrick Lagutaris is a professional executive coach and facilitator. He has coached a broad spectrum of professionals to gain insight into their personal leadership situation in order to improve their performance. His diverse expertise includes: executive coaching, leadership development and career transitions.

Patrick has more than twenty years of Hewlett Packard training in the areas of Coaching, Diversity, Teambuilding, and Organizational Effectiveness. By combining his extensive global Human Resources experience with Hewlett Packard as well as his line management and operations history, he provides a broad based perspective when coaching leaders. He has a strong track record in helping leaders assess their personal leadership assets and liabilities as well improving their ability to address staff development responsibilities.

Professional Experience

President, PCL Leadership
Hewlett Packard
Agilent Technologies
Drake Beam Morin (DBM)

Education

BS, Business Administration, California State University at Long Beach

Client Experience

Abbott Laboratories, Agilent Technologies Inc, Celestica, Kaiser Permanente, MetLife, Sprint, Symantec Corporation, Thermo Fisher Scientific, 3M United States, Accenture, Adobe Systems, Inc., American Express Company, BP Corporation North America Inc., Comcast Cable Communications, Hitachi High-Technologies America, Inc. Microsoft Corporation, Qwest Communications International, Inc., Waste Management, Inc., Wells Fargo & Company, Zurich North America

Executive Coaching

Leadership Development

360 Assessments

Virtual Leadership

Teambuilding

Webinar Instruction

Performance Management

Career Transitions

Certifications

Hogan Assessments

Hogan Team Building

Leadership Versatility (LVI)

Power Coaching

Team Management Systems

Emotional Social Competency Index

MBTI (Myers Briggs)

Strong Interest Inventory