Background

Betsy is an accomplished executive coach having worked successfully with senior executives and emerging leaders in enhancing their performance and further developing their leadership capabilities. Betsy takes an outcomes-based approach to her work, partnering with her clients to enhance their self-awareness and help them identify, develop and demonstrate the behavior change necessary to achieve their business goals and their own career aspirations. Her work has focused in a wide range of areas including leadership and communication skills, executive presence, building and managing relationships across complex matrix organizational structures, and developing effective teams. A significant portion of Betsy’s work has involved coaching leaders during transitions to new leadership roles, working with them to define and develop the leadership capabilities necessary for success.

Betsy has experience across a broad range of industries including pharmaceuticals, healthcare, aerospace, consumer products, financial services, insurance as well as academic environments. She has worked with clients internationally and in many functional areas such as marketing, sales, medicine/science, legal, and information technology.
