

Mitchell Shack, Ph.D.
Hogan Coaching Network

Background

Mitchell elevates the performance of leaders, teams and organizations by addressing the rational and emotional elements of leadership and organization dynamics. He serves as thought partner, educator, and facilitator, as he helps his clients gain insight, align for action and make the right moves at pivotal moments.

Mitch has worked with people across the globe in North America, Asia and Europe. His clients range from very large multinational organizations to hospitals and smaller firms that are challenged by imminent growth. He coaches leaders who are trying to get their arms around complex issues or who want to be ready for their next career challenge. Mitch strives to provoke thinking and provide useful insights. He often employs Hogan assessments to accelerate and validate thinking.

Interpersonal impact and political savvy

Influencing and leading change

Presentations and high-impact communication

Making great career moves and successful transitions

Balancing life

Cross-cultural influences

Conflict management

Managing the dilemmas of leadership

Professional Experience

President, Centauric, LLC

Partner, Deloitte Consulting

Partner, Pulvermacher Stevens & Shack

Internal Consultant, Public Service Commission of Canada

Visiting Assistant Professor of Management, Bowling Green State University

Education

B.Sc., University of Toronto

Ph.D., Industrial/Organization Psychology; Bowling Green State University

Post-Graduate Certificates in Coaching Individuals, Team Effectiveness and Organizational Development, Gestalt Institute of Cleveland

Client Experience

Center for Audit Quality, Dell, Deloitte, Dimensional Fund Advisors, Douglas Mental Health Institute, E.A. Renfroe, Google, HP, Innovationship, KPMG, Loring Ward, LourMurray, Pepsico, ROAR, Saveri Law, Venice Family Clinic, Verizon