Background

Yves-Pascal Pelcener is an executive coach who partners with executives and teams and supports them through transition and change, leading to significantly increased performance and breakthrough results.

Yves-Pascal is a French citizen based in Singapore and speaks French and English.

Since 2011, he has worked with leaders of more than 20 nationalities in different countries in Asia-Pacific, Europe, Middle East, and across a variety of industries, including high-tech, banking, retail, financial services, and manufacturing.

With his experience in banking and investment as a financial analyst and fund manager, entrepreneur, founder, and independent investor, Yves-Pascal brings a strong business acumen to his clients. His results-focused approach encourages his clients to unveil patterns and potential trends in their leadership styles and interpersonal relationships.

He is a Certified Professional Co-Active Coach® with The Coaches Training Institute and a certified organizational coach with the Institute of Executive Coaching and Leadership (IECL), in Sydney, Singapore, Hong Kong and Shanghai.
