

Supriti Bhandary

Coaching Profile

Supriti Bhandary, MA
Hogan Coaching Network

Background

Supriti partners with senior leaders and C-suite executives to help them strengthen their leadership effectiveness and thrive in complex environments. Her coaching focuses on areas such as executive presence and influence, emotional intelligence and strategic self-awareness, navigating transitions and new roles, and scaling high-growth organizations.

Drawing on more than 30 years of global HR leadership and board experience, Supriti combines business insight and deep understanding of human behavior to drive powerful, solution-focused coaching conversations that deliver sustainable change. Before becoming an executive coach, Supriti led global HR teams at Wipro Ltd., scaling the organization into a multi-billion-dollar enterprise of 150,000 employees worldwide. Her corporate and boardroom exposure has equipped her with a nuanced perspective on leadership dynamics, business complexity, and organizational transformation.

Supriti is passionate about expanding leadership capacity in the non-profit sector and serves on the Advisory Board of AIIR Consulting's Elevate Project, a pro bono initiative enabling purpose-driven organizations to access coaching services.
